

Financial Services Guide

PART ONE

People you trust.
Advice that works.

Introduction

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is issued by Sentry Advice Pty Ltd ABN 77 103 642 888 Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL) No. 227748 (Sentry).

This FSG is designed to assist you in determining whether to use any of the services offered by Sentry or its Authorised Representatives.

This FSG contains information about:

- Sentry, who as the Licensee, is responsible for the financial services;
- Your financial Adviser;
- The financial services and products your Adviser can provide;
- How Sentry, your Adviser and other related parties are paid for the financial planning services provided to you;
- Any associations or relationships that could create potential conflicts of interest;
- Details of who to contact should you have a complaint.

Authorised Representative Profile

This FSG must be read in conjunction with Part Two as it forms part of this FSG. It provides detailed information about your Adviser such as their contact details, referral sources and the types of financial products they can advise and deal in.

Please retain both Part One and Part Two for your reference and any future dealings with Sentry.

What other documents might you receive?

You might receive the following documents to help you make an informed decision on any financial strategy or recommended financial product.

Advice Documents

All personal advice provided to you will be outlined in a Statement of Advice (SOA), Record of advice (ROA) or other forms of documentation.

The SOA is used for initial advice and will contain the commissions and information on relevant associations.

Where further advice is provided to you that does not involve a significant change your Adviser may provide an ROA. Where there is a significant change you will be provided with an SOA.

Product Disclosure Statement (PDS)

You will receive a PDS if your Adviser has provided advice on a particular product. The PDS will contain the information you need in order to decide whether the financial product is appropriate for you.

Who is Sentry?

Sentry conducts business through a network of financial Advisers who are appointed as Authorised Representatives under Sentry's AFSL.

Where Sentry has appointed a corporate entity as an Authorised Representative, representatives of that company who give advice will also be authorised by Sentry.

Who is your Adviser?

Your Adviser will be the authorised representative listed in Part Two of this FSG.

Lack of Independence

We confirm that neither Sentry or your adviser are independent, impartial or unbiased as we receive insurance commissions that are not rebated in full to clients.

What kinds of financial services, products and advice are available to you?

Sentry can provide advice and strategies on the following, but not limited to:

- Savings and wealth creation
- Financial management
- Investment
- Superannuation
- Pre Retirement
- Retirement
- Margin lending
- Self managed superannuation funds
- Financial protection and insurance
- Estate planning
- Centrelink
- Salary packaging
- Business succession
- Finance and gearing

Sentry's Advisers can offer a range of insurance, investment, superannuation and retirement strategies and products. Please refer to Part Two of this FSG for the services which your Adviser is authorised to provide.

Sentry supports your Adviser by providing access to financial product research conducted by external researchers. This helps your Adviser select products that will help you reach your financial goals.

Sentry's Advisers act for you and not for any life insurance company, fund manager or bank.

How will you pay for the services provided and what do they cost?

As the provider of professional services, your Adviser will charge for the advice and services they provide to you. Depending on the services you require, your Adviser may charge by a variety of methods. Below is a guide as to how fees and commissions may be charged. Specific information on your Adviser's fees and charges can be found in Part Two of this FSG. All fees and charges will be disclosed in the SOA, ROA and/or PDS.

Your Adviser will discuss both the rate and method of payment with you before any financial services are provided, and will confirm any ongoing fees payable and the related services with you, each year.

Fee for Service

We may charge a fee for the provision of advice and/or implementation of recommendations. Depending on your circumstances and the complexity of the work involved, this fee may be a fixed dollar amount, a percentage rate based on the value of your proposed investment portfolio, an hourly rate for time spent providing the services, or a combination of these.

Commission

Commissions may be paid from a product provider to Sentry and are at no additional cost to you. Product providers may pay Sentry commission in association with the placement of the recommended products.

Generally the initial commission will be paid at the time you obtain the financial product with ongoing commissions paid during the life of the product.

Referrals

If you are referred to a third party provider details of any arrangements will be disclosed in your Statement of Advice.

Please refer to Part Two of this FSG for details on your Adviser's current referral arrangements.

How are Sentry and your Adviser paid?

Except for your investment funds and policy premium payments where these are paid directly to the product provider, all payments are payable to Sentry.

Sentry will retain between 0% and 10% of these payments and forward the balance to your Adviser. For example, if Sentry receives $100 in fees from a product provider Sentry will retain between $0 to $10 and forward $90 to $100 to your adviser.

Your Adviser may also pay Sentry a fixed monthly administration fee for providing business support services, which is at no additional cost to you.

What other benefits may product providers give to Sentry or your Adviser?

Some product providers may give Sentry or your Adviser other benefits such as entertainment or sponsorship. Both Sentry and your Adviser maintain a Register in line with industry standards to document any benefits received.

You have the right to request for further information in relation to the remuneration, the range of amounts or rates of remuneration, and other benefits received by Sentry and/or your Adviser.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

All financial payments, commissions and fees are subject to GST.

Does Sentry have any relationships or associations with financial product issuers?

Sentry or its related entities may have affiliations with some of the investment and product providers that appear on Sentry's Approved Product List (APL). Details of any affiliation relative to the advice you will be receiving from your Adviser will be disclosed in your SOA.

What information should you provide to receive personal advice?

You will need to complete a Client Questionnaire which will record your personal objectives, lifestyle goals, details of your current financial situation and any other relevant information. Your Adviser will usually assist you in completing this.

The information obtained will be assessed by your Adviser to assist them in providing appropriate advice.

You have the right to withhold personal information, but this may compromise the effectiveness of the advice you receive.

You should read any warnings contained in the client questionnaire and advice documents carefully before making any decision relating to a financial strategy or product.

As a financial service provider, we have an obligation under the Anti Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Finance Act to verify your identity and the source of any funds. This means that we will ask you to present identification documents such as passports and driver's licence. We will also retain copies of this information. We assure you that this information will be held securely. We cannot provide you with services if you are unwilling to provide this information.

Sentry and your Adviser are committed to complying with a privacy policy to protect the privacy and security of your personal information. Please ask your Adviser if you wish to obtain a copy of our privacy policy.

How can you give instructions to your Adviser about your financial products?

You may specify how you would like to give us instructions. For example you may nominate to instruct us to act by telephone, fax, e-mail or other.

Compensation arrangements

Sentry confirms that it has arrangements in place to ensure it continues to maintain Professional Indemnity insurance in accordance with s.912B of the Corporations Act 2001 (as amended).

In particular our Professional Indemnity insurance, subject to its terms and conditions, provides indemnity up to the sum insured for Sentry and our authorised representatives/representatives/employees in respect of our authorisations and obligations under our AFSL. This insurance will continue to provide such coverage for any authorised representative/representative/employee that has ceased work with Sentry for work done whilst engaged with us.
